HH ASSOCIATES, INC.'S MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER CONCERNING THE AUTOMATIC STAY

IF YOU OBJECT TO THE RELIEF REQUESTED, YOU MUST RESPOND IN WRITING. UNLESS OTHERWISE DIRECTED BY THE COURT, YOU MUST FILE YOUR RESPONSE ELECTRONICALLY AT HTTPS://ECF.TXSB.USCOURTS.GOV/ WITHIN TWENTY-ONE DAYS FROM THE DATE THIS MOTION WAS FILED. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE ELECTRONIC FILING PRIVILEGES, YOU MUST FILE A WRITTEN RESPONSE THAT IS ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE CLERK WITHIN TWENTY-ONE DAYS FROM THE DATE THIS MOTION WAS FILED. OTHERWISE, THE COURT MAY TREAT THE PLEADING AS UNOPPOSED AND GRANT THE RELIEF REQUESTED.

HH Associates, Inc. ("HH Associates" or "Movant"), files this, its motion (the "Motion") for entry of an order concerning the automatic stay, respectfully represents:

Introduction<sup>1</sup>

1. Movant is in possession of certain Property that was procured by Movant for Party City. Prior to the Petition Date, the parties were involved in litigation concerning payment for the Property. Post-Petition, the Debtor has disclaimed any interest in the Property, and advised that Movant may dispose of the Property. In an abundance of caution, however, Movant files this Motion, seeking the entry of an order by this Court providing that Property is not property of the estate, and therefore the automatic stay does not apply.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the body of the Motion.

Background

- 2. On January 17, 2023 ("Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary chapter 11 bankruptcy petitions with this Court.
- 3. Prior to the bankruptcy filing, Inner Workings, Inc. ("InnerWorkings")<sup>2</sup> supplied inventory to Party City Holdco, Inc., Party City Holdings, Inc., Party City Corporation, Amscan, Inc., and Amscan Holdings, Inc. (collectively "Debtors" or "Party City").
- 4. In March 2021, InnerWorkings terminated its relationship with Party City and demanded payment for over $1.6 million of inventory (the "Property") that had previously been ordered and approved by Party City (the "Demand"). The Property is identified in Exhibit A.
- 5. Party City did not make payment pursuant to the Demand. As a result, and prior to the Petition Date, Movant initiated a lawsuit entitled InnerWorkings, Inc. and HH Associates U.S., Inc. v. Party City Holdco, et. al., pending in the Morris County New Jersey Law Division, at docket no. MRS-L-002437-21, seeking payment for the Property (the "Lawsuit").
- 6. Post-petition, counsel for Movant contacted Debtors' counsel to discuss the disposition of the Property. On February 16, 2023, counsel for the Debtors emailed counsel for Movant and expressly disclaimed any ownership or interest in the Property, and authorized Movant to dispose of the Property at its discretion. A copy of the email is attached as Exhibit B.
- 7. The Debtors do not contend the Property is property of the estate. Because there was a pre-petition dispute as to ownership of the Property, however, Movant files this Motion, out of an abundance of caution, seeking entry of an order providing that the automatic stay does not apply.

Argument & Authorities

- 8. Section 541(a)(1) provides that the bankruptcy estate consists of "all legal or equitable interests of a debtor in property as of the commencement of the case ... wherever located and by whomever held." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1).
- 9. Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code operates to impose a stay of "any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate". 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). The Bankruptcy Code's automatic stay is designed to ensure the orderly distribution of assets by temporarily protecting the property of the debtor's estate from the reach of creditors. Brown v. Chestnut (In re Chestnut), 422 F.3d 298, 300 (5th Cir. 2005).
- 10. Here, as evidenced by the Debtors' own admissions, the Debtor has no interest in the Property. See Exhibit B. Accordingly, the Property is not property of the Debtors' bankruptcy estate. See e.g., TM Procurement Corp. v. Vantage Drilling Co., (In re TMT Procurement Corp.), 764 F.3d 512, 523 (5th Cir. 2014) ("Under § 541(a)(1), property of the estate includes all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case"). Movant therefore submits the automatic stay does not apply to the Property, and that Movant can dispose of the Property in its discretion, as the Debtor has suggested. See Exhibit B (wherein the Debtor states that Movant "may dispose of the [Property] at its discretion").
- 11. However, in an abundance of caution to the extent of any interest that the Debtor may claim and given the prior dispute concerning ownership of the Property, Movant requests that the Court enter an order providing that the automatic stay does not apply to the Property.

WHEREFORE, the Movants respectfully ask this Court to grant the Motion and enter the proposed order in the form submitted herewith. Movants also request general relief.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: RE: Innerworkings v. Party City

Dear John and Jack,

The Party City entities disclaim any interest in the remaining inventory. InnerWorkings/HH Global may dispose of the inventory at its discretion. I note that pre-lawsuit, Party City requested that InnerWorkings/HH Global forward the Party City owned inventory, and it refused to do so.

I am not authorized to accept any claims for administrative or other post-bankruptcy expenses. To the extent that your client makes such claims, they should be submitted in the bankruptcy proceedings, and Party City reserves the right to object to any such claims, including on the grounds that there was no actual benefit provided to Party City during the chapter 11 case.

Best regards,

John

John,

Following up on my email below, the storage invoice for January 2023 is attached. The prorated amount due for January 17, 2023 to January 31, 2023 is $8,146.09. This amount is an administrative expense payable by the debtor. Please note that prior to the bankruptcy filing, our client sent copies of these invoices to iwinvoices@partycity.com. We advised our client to stop forwarding these invoices directly to Party City now that a bankruptcy petition has been filed.

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES UNDER FEDERAL RULE OF EVIDENCE 408

John,

Thank you for your email. I am working with Jack on this matter now that a bankruptcy petition has been filed.

A listing of the inventory is attached. Each item is identified by the name that was historically used by InnweWorkings and Party City ("PC"). We should be able to work together to ascertain which items are branded based on the names provided. All of the inventory was ordered by PC in accordance with the process the had been established over the course of the ten year business relationship between the parties. The bates numbers correspond to documents produced in the state court litigation evidencing this fact. As such, it appears to me that the inventory is property of PC's bankruptcy estate.

Our client is owed approximately $1.6MM for the inventory. The inventory is security for this claim because our client has the right to sell the inventory to a third party and set off the proceeds against its claim. This right to set off is stayed by the bankruptcy filing.

At present, our client is storing the inventory for PC. This storage fees incurred on and after the filing date of January 17, 2023 are administrative expenses in PC's bankruptcy.

Like you, Jack and I are seeking a practical way to deal with the inventory. Continuing to store it at PC's expense is not practical. To the extent that PC wants some or all of the inventory we can negotiate the transfer. Alternatively, if PC seeks to abandon its interest, we would request that PC consent to stay relief so that we can exercise our rights to sell and setoff. As you mention, the branded inventory presents a particular concern.

I am copying PC's bankruptcy attorneys on this email. After you and they have reviewed this, I would like to set up a conference to discuss ideas to resolve the issues.

Regards, John

Hi Jack,

I was able to speak briefly with the client today, and we are conferring on how best to handle this. Can you provide a listing of the inventory? Branded merchandise is one particular concern, so a listing identifying what the inventory is may be of help.

I'm asking this in seeking a practical way to deal with the issue. My recollection is that some of the inventory in question between the two sides was owned by Party City and some was not. Party City reserves all rights and defenses.

John,

The particular ask is how you want us to handle the inventory. Since Party City has taken the position pre-petition that it owns the inventory, it is property of its bankruptcy estate. Expenses incurred to preserve the estate's property, like the monthly charge to store the inventory, are administrative expenses that the debtor must pay. We are happy to continue to store the inventory for your client and send you the monthly invoice for payment.

If you or your client want to handle the inventory issue differently, or if you disagree with any of the above, it is important that we talk. In the interim, we will reach out to the attorneys listed on the petition to advise them of this issue.

Hi Jack,

I think I'm going to be able to talk to my client the middle of next week. Until then, I just don't know anything to tell you. I will reach out to you after I talk to my client, and will set something up then. I'm going to be out of state for work the rest of the week but if there is any particular ask you want me to relay, we can talk early next week (or you can just shoot me an email).

Best regards,

John

John,
We're in receipt of the Suggestion of Bankruptcy. My partner John August is a bankruptcy practitioner and we'd like to have a call with you and someone handling the bankruptcy for Party City as soon as possible. As you know, HH Global continues to incur the cost of storing the inventory at issue in our litigation. In prior correspondence, your client has taken the position that it owns the inventory. Given that, we want to discuss the inventory issue. John and I are both available tomorrow between 10 and 5, Wednesday after 1:30, or anytime Thursday. Please let me know what works for you.
Thanks.
